Attention:

Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of your letter of 30 January 1963, and wish to inform you this Agency may be interested in the instrument which you describe. In order to assess its value to us, we would appreciate additional information, particularly as to its use and capability. If after review of this information we can determine that the instrument would be of use to us, we would appreciate a demonstration either at your plant or in Washington. However, we will be in contact on this latter point after we have made our assessment on the basis of the information you can supply.

Very truly yours,

25X1A
